Walther PPQ .22 Long Barrel

£ 838

Description

Walther PPQ .22 This revolutionary semi-auto pistol supplied by this iconic manufacturer is based on the full size 9mm striker fire polymer lower safe trigger pistol used by numerous Special Forces units because of its ability to fire underwater. The long barrel pistol (LBP) variant is an adaptation of this hugely successful striker fire weapon system but produced in a .22 LR platform. The pistol comes with one 12 round magazine and a hard plastic travel case. All new parts including grip extension and shrouds come in black powder coated finish. (chround is etra) These amazing pistols will shoot standard high velocity and subsonic ammunition by most manufacturers (please see our product comparison footage). Please email us any requirements or finishes that you require and we will be happy to assist. The pistol comes in a number of configurations This version of the PPQ comes as standard without any accessories and the barrel is undrilled.
