Chiappa Firearms Ltd 1892 Alaskan Lever action
.357 Rifles

£ 1,359

Description

Chiappa 1892 Alaskan Takedowns The Alaskan combines tradition with modern technology in creating one of the fastest handling 1892 Lever Action Rifles, designed specifically for the hunting market. A take-down rifle chambered in .44 Mag or .357 Mag, featuring the time-proven 1892 action, the Alaskan delivers serious knock-down power when using Remington Core-Lokt ammunition. The sights are Skinner Express style while the 16.5" barrel is drilled and tapped enabling you to mount optics. The stock and forend are made of wood with overmolded rubber "soft touch" finish, the comfortable butt stock is made of anti-shock rubber.
