American Starr Revolver .44 44 Muzzleloader

£ 1,500

Description

Starr Revolver .44 Here we have an original American civil war Starr revolver in .44 these revolvers are very rare and in this condition now. This one has the soldiers initials carved into the grip of the pistol as you can see - she does have one problem though and that is the cylinder locking arm is broken BUT we have a new one that we got from the USA which just needs fitting to the pistol other than that she is in good working order with a good bore for her age - An amazing collectors pistol
